Happy travellers in the highlands

A mystery bus trip was organised by Fingal Neighbourhood house on Friday 30.3.2012.

Nine ladies from St Marys and Fingal enjoyed the day out. All had a great time on the bus. Mid morning we visited Waddamana Hydro Station in the Central Highlands, which was opened in early 20th Century. What a delight.

After that we drove onto Miena at the base of The Great Lake and had a beautiful lunch, with a view over the lake. Mike, our driver then drove us up the other side of the lake through Liawenee and Deloraine. Our final stop was at Longford for a little shopping. Thank you Mike and Neighbourhood House for a great day out.

STUART - NAN

Dot, Bobby, Heather, Richard and Raymond and families have been overwhelmed by messages of condolences, phone calls, cards, flowers and cooking at the time of Nan's passing.

Extra special thanks to the St Marys Golf and Bowls Club for their catering and support.

Thanks to everyone who attended Mum's funeral. She would have been humbled by her huge send off.

We are all appreciative of your caring and kind thoughts.

A LITTLE BIT OF HISTORY RETRIEVED

With the proposed new coalmine hoping to open up in the old Valley Coalmine near Fingal, the chances are they will find a number of artefacts left behind by the miners of yesteryear.

This happened quite recently when miners re-entered the old Kitten mine, which was part of Ray Yates's Cat mine. Both mines, which are adjacent to the Duncan mine, were purchased by Cornwall Coal Co in the early 1960s and have since been part of the Duncan operation.

The main artefacts found in the Kitten were an old transformer, thought to be one of the first used in coalmining when electricity was introduced in the 1930s, and an old wooden skip. The skip is significant because it is unique in its design and style.

Unlike the skips found in mines like Cornwall, Mt Nicholas and Jubilee, where they were emptied by a tippler, this one has a front opening gate and would have been emptied by the miner manually, end for ending the skip.

One of the most common artefacts found in old coalmines are the old type long neck beer bottles. Someone once make comment that the old miners most have been heavy drinkers to leave so many empty bottles lying around. The truth was, however, although most of the miners liked a beer or two, they only drank at home and would use their empty bottles to carry their favourite drink of cold tea to work next day.

Whilst the beer bottles will remain buried underground, the miners at Duncan saw the historical significance in the old skip and transformer and brought them to the surface, where Tony Cosier, Duncan Mine Manager, was kind enough to donated them to the St Patricks Head & Esk Valley Historical Society.

What we do with these little pieces of mining history is unclear at the moment. But, hopefully, sometime soon another museum will be re-established in the Valley and the artefacts, along with their history, can be displayed for all to see.

Vol. 44 No 22, April 5, 2012

Letter to the editor

The criticisms of Forestry Tasmania by Frank Giles (VV 22 March 2012) cannot go unchallenged, for fear the untruths he writes about taxpayer subsidisation finds another gullible reader.

Forestry Tasmania is not subsidised.

The Auditor General recently found that Tasmania is $111m a year better off with FT than it would be without it.

He also found FT has made $201 million in profits since corporatisation, paid $99m in government taxes and dividends, and invested $414m in plantations, including $211m paid by government in compensation for the loss of resource as a result of the TCFA.

Mr Giles much more correctly observes the forestry industry is subject to change. However, he dismisses the part played by conservation groups in damaging Tasmania's branch in overseas markets, particularly Japan. What else is the explanation of the market for woodchips from other exporting states remaining buoyant?

He applauds moves towards innovative engineered timber products like laminated structural timbers, but ignores the fact that these were outlined in Forestry Tasmania's Innovations Plan, released last year. The plan also includes the production of appearance grade peeled veneers, development of a wood pellet plant for domestic heating and biomass for energy production.

The plan was produced recognising there's likely to be reduced availability of resource from native forests, but there is still some years before plantations are able to meet close demand for solid timber.

Jamie Haas.

WHEN I SAY I'M BROKE - I'M BROKE... Pay attention !!!

A little old lady answered a knock on the door one day, to be confronted by a well-dressed young man carrying a vacuum cleaner.

"Good morning," said the young man. "If I could take a couple minutes of your time, I would like to demonstrate the very latest in high-powered vacuum cleaners."

"Go away!" said the old lady. "I'm broke and haven't got any money!" and she proceeded to broke the door.

Quick as a flash, the young man wedged his foot in the door and pushed it wide open... "Don't be too hasty!" he said, "not until you have at least seen my demonstration." And with that, he emptied a bucket of horse manure onto her hallway carpet. "Now, if this vacuum cleaner does not remove all traces of this horse manure from your carpet, madam, I will personally eat the remainder."

The old lady stepped back and said, "Well you just stay right there while I get you a fork, 'cause they cut off my electricity this morning."

"The handle on your recliner does not qualify as an exercise machine."

The Say Cagerattler

After watching some of the news coming out of the recent Queensland elections I began wondering how realistic a vast majority of 70 seats could be in any parliament, especially given that Queensland doesn't use a house of review as mentioned in the coverage. Despite the best intentions of the new Premier you'd have to have concerns about the agenda of legislation that can virtually automatically be passed into law.

Hopefully a commonsense approach will take place over the years until some semblance of a viable opposition occurs again there.

Regardless of your political affinity an effective Opposition or at least a strong ,fair House of Review is a necessity... even in a democracy like ours.

In Federal Politics this is crucial in fact. I'm not convinced either on a Government where independents like at present in Canberra, have such a huge say in the House of Reps and Senate. On a few issues already the absolute need for the support of these Independent members is intriguing to say the least. In a perfect world perhaps a small to moderate majority would be good to allow effective, stable government.

On really contentious issues a reasonable chance of balanced debate and the use more often than now for a Conscious Vote would happen regularly, which in turn would reflect an overall more representative outcome.

Then you return to the real world and voting on Party lines almost always is the main thing, so to have the numbers or to "convince" the balance of power parliamentarians to vote your way, is what happens exclusively. Then it's off to the senate to ascend into law or be repealed from law.

Politics is a subject we all need to take an interest in, because our whole life depends and is affected by it. When it comes to polling days it is very important that we bear in mind the need to not allow any party huge majorities and that real opposition is in place in a workable format..That'd be better for all.

I'd like to thank the respondent to my RFA article a few issues back. Whilst I don't agree necessarily on much of the content, I appreciate that his obvious passion on the subject was evident and that he took the time to express his views. This is what the column is meant to do, get people to engage on issues that confront and affect us all. I wish more people would take a leaf out of Mr. Gile's book and not just comment personally to me about the subject matter. Thanks again.

What do you think ?

Book launch at e.ScApe Wilderness Gallery & Cafe.

A small taste of St Marys history is gaining plenty of attention as 'Inside my Skin' is officially launched into the world of books.

An autobiographical book by Susan Lucas was warmly embraced by the nice sized gathering of thirty plus at e.ScApe Café, St Marys, Wednesday 21 March.

In his first class manner, Rod Corfe decoratively displayed a table of delicious finger food and ensured all glasses were charged. With her professional style Marita Mangano's voice welcomed the filling room of people with song, being joined by accomplished musicians Rita and Ian Summers.

Adding a dash of jaw dropping surprise to the evening, Susan's friends, Sheila and Peter just popped over from Brisbane for the occasion of 'Inside my Skin's' launch.

Staying within the book launch theme of 'beer & yarn' a few beers were had, yarnning was heard humming, and laughter was alive, bringing the room to life.

Those who dared to step inside e.ScApe were easily consumed in the merriment.

OUT OF THE WOODWORK

Wendy Brennan ,Secretary 6372 2094

Well the tents have been ordered, the musos practicing, and all is gradually coming together for our Annual Open Day Fair. We hope that we will see you there. Old favorites will be back as well as some newcomers to keep you entertained.

The "Amazing Aston" will get you practicing until your juggling skills meets a respectable standard. Susanne Boughton from Bay of Fires Apiaries will be available to answer any questions concerning the art of bee-keeping or any of her organic honey products.

Jacinta and Maddie who produce beautiful hand loomed scarves will again grace us with their attendance, also Heather from Madd Mudd whose eclectic mix of felting and ceramics is a delight to the eye. Judy Duckett from Bagdad Quilting Supplies will only be too happy to advise you of your needs and Rita Summers will be displaying her beautiful quilt work.

Maggie Fletcher, who needs no formal introduction as her work is renowned, will be back to woo the crowds with her beautiful art work and collectables. Stay tuned for the next out of the woodwork for more information on our clever exhibitors and artisans.

Please keep a lookout for our trusty ticket seller Lorraine Gill and purchase one of our raffle tickets. Monies raised are put back into our club. All our prizes are made by the Guild members and this year they are (as pictured, right) 1 garden seat, 2 wheelbarrows, 2 plant tubs. As previously, first ticket drawn on the day has first choice. Second ticket drawn has the choice of remaining two items. Final ticket will receive the last item not chosen.

Guild's Open Day Fair will be held on the 21st April Hope to see you there!

The Guild meets on the last Saturday of every month at 2pm in the old railway goods shed situated behind the Railway Station complex. New members are always welcome. We are open Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Other times by appointment.

St Patrick's Day Garden Party

Mariton House, in St Marys, was the venue for a "St Patrick's Day" Garden Party, hosted by owner and proprietor, Diana Foster.

A gathering of about 40-50 people were provided with a beautiful buffet lunch, along with some delightful platters from guests, all of which was enjoyed in the lovely gardens.

Most of the guests were dressed in costume which made it all the more interesting.

After lunch Ian and Rita Summers entertained the guests with guitar and singing, which was enjoyed by all in the autumn sunshine.

strength in the butterfly top 8. All the squad swam very competitive times, with Saree, Lily and Bailey only just missing out on a top 8 patch in their age groups and showing a good set of heels to the other swimmer's in their heats.

"It was great- the pool there is SO BIG- it was a bit scary. We haven't had much time in a big pool - we have spent the winter in the little pool at the Bayside Inn- (thanks to the Bayside people) so none of us really knew we were very fast, we don't really take it too seriously- Carol is just fun,' said one of the squad.

Swimming in the area has never looked so strong.

Thanks go to Carol and Dave for their support of the swimmers and their families and all the hard work they have done together to get there.

To join the squad, or learn to swim for adults or children and water awareness for babies, please call Carol on 0447 241 233.

LOCAL SWIMMERS GO STATEWIDE!

Local swimmers from Carols Swim School at St Helens and St Marys made a big splash last weekend at the Hobart Aquatic Centre. Lachlan and Chelsea Mackenzie, Chloe and Maddy McCann, Saree Salter, Lily Fischer, and Bailey Barnes did their coach Carol Bennett proud by having a go at a State-wide swim meet.

"I'm really impressed with all of my swimmers - they did a really great job - I'm so proud of them all", said Carol.

Not only did they gain some valuable competition experience, but they clocked some great times and came away with some medals and rankings.

Lachlan Mackenzie from Bicheno came away with the Gold MEDAL in the Boys freestyle (WOW!) and Madeleine McCann came in the top 8 for backstroke, Breaststroke and freestyle, and Chloe McCann showed her

The St Helens Sea Scouts get sailing on the Bay!

If you were wondering what all the activity along St Helens Point road was about on the weekend, the St Helens Sea Scouts hosted the state wide 'Mariners Trophy' – an annual Seamanship Competition.

Scouts with their parents and leaders visited and camped at St Helens from around the state to learn and demonstrate their sailing and watercraft skills. These included knots and splicing, anchoring and 'Man Overboard' drills, first aid at sea, reading navigational charts, ship's bell, piping and constructing wind speed and direction indicators.

Experienced and novice crews rowed, sailed and navigated their way around Georges Bay in perfect, autumn conditions. An invaluable experience was an intentional capsize and rescue- a great thing to learn in training.

The confidence and maturity of these young people – both boys and girls was inspirational. Every participant enjoyed themselves and enjoyed working together in the spirit of competition. The Scouting method is known as 'learning by doing' and 'having fun at the same time.'

The prize for Coxswain went to Claire from 1st Tamar- beating all other participants with a stunning display of knowledge and skills in all aspects of sailing and navigation. The team from Clarence (eastern shore) won the overall 'Mariners Trophy' once all the points were tallied up.

Scouts learn skills for life but most of all they HAVE FUN.

For further information on joining either Scouts (11–14yrs) or Cubs (7–10yrs), please call Jane on 0412 803 027 or Colin on 0408 274 812.

Art for the colour blind exhibition

Artist ~ Simon Fraser

2-4pm, 1st April 2012

@ Surfside, Beaumaris

Exhibition on show until April 30th 2012

On Sunday, 1st April I had the pleasure of attending the launch of the Art For the Colour Blind exhibition by Artist Simon Fraser at Surfside, Beaumaris, in the company of Rod Drummond and Wendy Fowler. It really was a joy to find the artworks that awaited us on show at Surfside. There were many paintings hanging inside and an impressive display of four large artworks framing the outdoor seating area.

Some of the works are subdued and structured, whilst others are simply outrageous, in a wonderful way, in their colour and abstract styles, which sadly you cannot see in these black and white images. Simon gave a short speech, outlining how he uses art as a medium through which to express what he calls his "madness". The name of the exhibit originates from the fact that Simon is colour blind himself, and I think this shows through in the manner in which he paints using a delightful exuberance of colours.

The exhibition is on show until April 30th and I can recommend calling in for a viewing, in full colour, if you're passing that way or looking to kill an hour or two becoming absorbed in some great local talent.

Dear Pool Key holder

POOL DRAINAGE WORKS 10 April – 13 April 2012

Works will commence to address the drainage issues at our pool on April 10 and will continue for the remainder of the week, hopefully concluding on Friday 13.

The company carrying out the works have advised that they do not feel that we need to close the pool over this period of time. The work will take place during business hours on these days.

Therefore, the pool will be available for key holder use over the Easter break. Key holders are reminded that there will be barriers in place and some degree of noise over this period. In order to ensure minimum interference with the drainage works, key holders are asked to follow any instructions or requests given by the builders during this time and to adhere to any signage, or barriers erected. The builders have advised that during some periods throughout the works, splashing of water will need to be kept at a minimum.

For those sensitive to noise or who would prefer to avoid the works being conducted, we suggest that you avoid using the pool during business hours.

We apologise for any inconvenience these works may cause key holders, and look forward to having the drainage issues in our facility corrected.

POOL COVERS —, as the weather is getting colder and evenings darker we would like to remind key holders to please ENSURE THE COVERS ARE PLACED ON THE POOL, in the interest of energy efficiency and swimmer comfort. We suggest that if you are leaving the pool from 5.30 onwards and there are no other users in the enclosure, please place the covers over the pool.

ST MARYS MINI FAIR EXTRAVAGANZA

Oh what a night! Thank you to everyone in the Community who came along on Friday 30th March to the St Marys Health Centre's 'Mini Fair Extravaganza'.

It was a fantastic night with a lot of cultural diversity in the food department, bargains galore at every stall and entertainment for every family member.

Funds raised will aid in the refurbishment of our new Palliative Care Facility at the Health Centre.

Thank you must also go to all the people who donated items, did cooking, potted plants and made themselves available on Friday night to help out.

As not all of the raffle and prize results were available to me at the time of publication please make sure you get the next edition of the Valley Voice to see who these lucky winners were.

What a great community we live in!

APRIL IS: 'PAY IT FORWARD' MONTH

There is tremendous power and positive energy in giving – it is a shame that not enough people have experienced it to the fullest.

Pay It Forward Day is about all people, from all walks of life giving to someone else and making a positive difference.

To find out how to be part of Pay it Forward look for the poster inside this edition of the Valley Voice or come into the Health Centre and see our Health Promotion Board for further details.

'Pay it Forward' and help build a better Break O'Day

- Take a card
- Do someone a good deed
- Tick one box (on your card)
- Give them the card
- Explain to them to do the same for someone else.

Some 'Pay it Forward' ideas:

Pay for someone's coffee
Share your umbrella on a rainy day
Carry someone's groceries to their car
Wash your neighbour's car if they can't

Why 'Pay it Forward'?

Giving brings a greater feeling of self worth and self esteem
Being generous can have a powerful effect on your immune system
When you make others feel good, you feel good too!

Where to get your card?

St Marys CHC Promotion Board- in reception area

What do I do if all the boxes are ticked?

Your good deed is to write your name on the back of the card for your chance to be in the draw to win the pamper pack so you can give it to the person of your choice!

Put completed card into the box located in the reception area at the St Marys Health Centre.

St Marys Sports Centre Inc. news. Kackhander

* It's great to report that after a 6 season absence we have a Men's Pennant team again. A special thanks to Macca for organising so much in this regard. The first two games were away and solid results were great and the first win can't be too far away.

A 5-2 loss at Bicheno was highlighted by Chris Davern and Jack Viney knocking off their two gun players and both Shaye Ward and Kodie Donald going close in their games which would have been incredible. Last week at St Helens Shaye recorded his first win for the club and Chris and Paul Davern won also but we just missed out on a win. No Pennant this week but the following games against Malahide and Scamander are at home so it'd be great to get on the winners list then. Thanks to ALL our players who have made themselves available and it won't be long before our amazing record in Pennant will resume again. From 1986 to 2006 the club won flags in 1986, 1987 as well as the NTGA Div 3 Championship that year, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1993, 1995, 1996, 199, 1998, 1999, highest handicap in 99 was on 8 would you believe, and in 2002 (who would forget that one) 2003, 2004 (robbed by the rules committee for a chance at a State Flag) 2005. All up 16 pennants in 21 years and about 25 overall since 1950 when it began. Not a bad record.

* the course is looking good thanks to Macca, Roger, Trev and the crew. Enough said. Much appreciated.

* Again a big thanks to everyone involved in the Crib Night last Saturday. I believe it involved the wee small hours again. Around 30 very enthusiastic players. GREAT.

* As bowls finishes on a quite successful host club duty season a big thanks goes to all who have helped out in any way they did this season. Greenkeeper, caterers, match managers, ECBA match officials. Everyone, capped by the Ladies winning the pennant.

* A reminder that the Annual Dinner and Presentation Night is set for April 14th and will be proceeded at 5.30 pm by the AGM of bowls where several things are on the agenda for the continuing success of the club. Please try and come. Re the dinner: it would be really helpful for the caterers if you would respond if attending as soon as possible.

* Our first week of all week Chicken Run, resulted in 10 players taking part. Winner last week was John McDonald from Beth Haas and Kath Blair. First prize was a great meat tray from St Marys IGA. Check poster this issue for the terrific Swish and Fish event on Good Friday. Look out for that.

* Still looking for a new Kackhander -Any takers?

Until next time, good hitting and rolling.

The Sports centre would like to thank all those who turned out for the 'World' crib pairs championship last Saturday. Jack Forman and Liz Dean defeated Damon Viney and Liz Baldwin in the final for a well deserved win.

What happened to the world champs, Cookie and Jason? As usually happens, the cards did not fall their way.

Thirty guests enjoyed a well catered and fun night at the centre. Keep an eye out for the next great night.
